

Task 1: How old are you , Alex ? I am happy because you will visit my country . So , of couse , you can see me . Now , it is summer , so the weather is very sun and hot . You should bring the T-shirt , the shorts , the hat ,....It can help you in summer there. I looking forward to seeing you. Tra Task 2: According to my opinion, a successful film requires a lot of factors, such as directors, actors, script, experienced, cameraman, investors, ... Famous director is essential, but to take a pro-communist film script content is the first factor. because the director worked on the script. Next, a successful film to receive a major investment. Investors will provide qualified help accomplish the best film. On the other hand, the actor is an indispensable element to make a successful film. Actors who represent film content, so a successful film is also shown when the best actor. As we know, the context of the film there is also beautiful or not someone turns phim.Vi that, as the cameraman is extremely important to make a successful film. Finally, in my view, a successful film is not just famous actors that need a lot of other factors.
