

task 1 Dear, Nick I am happy to participate the concert. I like all kinds of music, like classical music, romantic, ballad music, pop. I can help decorate the stage, invite some friends to join task 2 In our modern society, the question how to improve public health has been widely discussed. A fair portion of people believe that increasing the number of sports facilities is the best way to improve public health. More sports facilities, such as gym and football playground, can offer the great improvement of public health. Nowadays, we have more pressure from work, life and even relationship, so doing exercise becomes a good way to relax. The recently published data shows that, increasing number of businessmen prefer to go to gym after work, which can definitely improve public health. Therefore, more and more sports facilities can improve public health.
