

Task 1 : Hi , Alex ! Nice too meet you :) I'm nineteen years old. I have a younger brother. My hobby is volunteering, reading and watching movies . Your friend, Linh .

Task 2 : ourneys to the bottom of the sea will be a much more mainstream, fashionable option, with a few already in existence such as The Neptune and Poseidon suite at the Atlantis Hotel in Dubai. The race for space will initially take travellers to Earth's low orbit allowing them to experience the stunning curvature of the globe from ultra-high altitude. Space lovers will also be able to visit sky resorts currently being developed that are set to contain zero-gravity spas, space gliders and space observatories where guests can experience weightlessness. The moon and space will be popular places to go on holiday in the future.
