

hi lan glad today have the opportunity to write to you my trip immensely zoo fun with a lot of friends who joined me we visit each animal barn they are very close and lovely thieeht We spent a very meaningful day I would ban will also take the time to come with us one more time that offline see you one day the nearest Your diminis task 2 in my opinion the park is a great place and is suitable for students today the park is the most healthy environment is the place to learn interesting things about nature serve their collective knowledge and learning besides entertainment where fun is extremely healthy and fun when we come to the park we will feel extremely comfortable in harmony with nature VAG I think that instead of sitting in the library café sat studying the park we should create the most comfortable atmosphere for learning and high results to the park we met friendly animals learn to love animals it is extremely valuable I hope you join me raefng the animal friendly love life than through the park to enlist I want you to listen to my opinion because I find it extremely useful not only love the park you also need to protect it interrupts the tape failure trees, flowers in the park, no littering, no speak loudly or animal jokes cheu I hope you hear my sunshine to love and protect the park