

1. Hi Linda! Would you like to have a party with me tonight? Oh, it is going to begin at 8 p.m at the center swimming pool. When you go please drop in my house to bring me go together! See you soon, Linh!

2. I have a neutral opinion about the topic: people working in offices should not wear jeans and T-shirt. Office is the place of serious working, so we should wear gravely. You also show your deference with polite appearence. However, jeans and T-shirt are the casual clothes and in a few cases, they are not suitable for working in offices. But i think, there is no problem with wearing jeans or T-shirts in offices. Jeans make you more fashionable and they are never out of time. T-shirts help us dynamic and you seem younger than your real age. Jeans and T-shirt also make us comfotable to work, feel offices like home then have the more effective at woking. In some nessesary cases, you can put off jeans and T-shirt and wear office clothes easily. Wearing to working is important, but the more important than it is working. If you are an intelligent officer, you will chose suitable time to wear jeans and T-shirt or not. Goodluck!
