

Task 1. Dear Chris, I'm so sorry I can't come last night. I'd really like to go to the party but I have a test today and it is too hard. As you might understand, I studied at home until 4 a.m. Would you like to go for dinner with me on Saturday? I know a new restaurant. Hope to see you soon. Love, Neil Task 2. We must all look after the planet. Everyday, we live, work, meet friend, chatting, love, married and die in the planet. Without it, life is impossible
