

Task 1: Dear Lan, I am excited to write this invitation to you to formally invite you to my next birthday party on 9th, July. I am planning to celebrate it at home. There is going to be a small party in the evening after 7 p.m. We will have plenty of pizza, soda, chips and other snack foods. Also, there will be a dance and music programme. I am going to invite all my friends and relatives. I strongly desire that you should also come on my birthday. I hope that you will not reject my invitation and go to my house earlier to help me prepare all things for the party. Thanking you. Yours Sincerely, Tu Uyen.

Task 2: In modern society, fashion trends are increasingly diverse. However, there are many ideas that officers should not wear jeans and T-shirts. I support this idea for the following reasons. Wearing jeans and t-shirts show that you are not polite. This clothes is only suitable to go out with friends. Wearing jeans to work makes superiors, colleagues and customers and partners think you're not strict about the job.
