

Task 1: Dear Alex, i have just received you mail. I'm really glade to hear that you are going to visit my country next month. It is so lucky that i'm on my summer vacation so i can arrange a meeting for us. Of course i'm really happy if i can take you to some famous places in my country too. By the way, in my country it is summer so the weather is very hot. you should bring summer clothes with you and i think you will travel a lot at my country so remember to take some hats along with you too. Please tell you the time you come so that i can pick you up. I'm looking forward to seeing you. Your friend, Minh Huong.

Task 2: Today, society is becoming more and more developing. Film industry is among the most concerned part of the development. A successful film depend on content of story and the acting of charator. If a film has exist of famous actor, that film will certainly do well in some part. Famous actors not only can attract audiences' attention but also expess well their mission.
