

Q36: Hi, Alex! I'm really excited that you are going to visit my town. We always welcome you. And swimming pool is like a container filled with water to enable swimming or other leisure activities. Pools can be sunk into the ground or built above ground. It's pretty cool, especially in summer. There are some swimming pools in town centre so you can choose anyone, and to get there is quite easy. Best time to go is in the morning. See you soon, Nhi. Q37: Living in big families has both advantages and drawbacks. Everytime you feel hard with life, you can share your burden with others member in you family. And having a family can help you focus on things and avoid tensions. The more members, the more fun you have. In a big family means there always be others who take care for your children when you're busy at the office or not at home. Children will be trained in personality and respect for everyone. They will be intersted to know and share with more people, and not selfish or arrogant. Big families also help children participate in more activites and have oppotunities to develop their ability to communicate. That is the advantages of living in big families. Here is some drawbacks. Families with several generations sometimes brings much discomfort and inconvenience for everyone. There is so much character and rules must be followed. You need to pay attention to words and behavior when communicating with older people, living individuals are also less freedom. The difference in ideology, lifestyle, attitudes can also cause discord. For example, in some Asians country, at dinner, you have to wait for older members's allow then you start your meal. But anyway, living in big families always interesting and have a lot of value.
