

Task 1 Dear Linh, I'm writing this email to say about you'll help me going to meet my father. He'll be here tomorrow, but I'm too busy to go out to miss him. He will go in the train and stop at station No.1 . You can wait for him there. He's high, no fat and short hair. He'll wearing a red shirt and jeans, carrying the blue suitcase. I hope you find him. Thank you for helping me. I will see you later. Is there anything unclear, please email me. My friend, Hanh.

Task 2 Everybody has their own style own fashion. That is the right of every person, no one can force people to do their discretion. My fashion style is casual. Because I think it gives me comfort. I would love to wear T-shirt and jeans. I wear them when spontaneity. But I don't always wear them. When to places in need of formal and polite, I dress in formal fashion style. I think that everybody can be flexible in choosing fashion. Because it depends on where we come and what where need to do.
