

Task 1. Hi Leslie, I'm Nhung. I know you have a party at your house on Saturday. On Saturday, I'm free so I can take part in party and come to your house. I'll go to a party with my friend, she is Thom. I like having music, cake and balloon at parties. Also I like dancing at parties. Love, Nhung. Task 2. Well, the most important festival in Vietnam I may tell you right away is the Tet holidays, it's the Vietnamese traditional Lunar New Year which usually falls in early February. The reason why I pick this is that we highly appreciate this festival as this is the time for all family members gathering together after a long hard working year. Traditional, no matter where we live and work, we all have to return to our hometown of fatherland to give best wishes to grandparents, parents and relatives. I may continue with the activities we do on the days. we usually repaint the house and decorate them beautifully. we also cook best traditional foods to serve the whole family and welcome guest. I'm very happy.
