should not wear jeans and T-shirts. Because the office is a place to dress courteous, nice and luxurious. in office people communicate with other people, the guests as foreign partners. So we need to dress courteous to others good reviews.
Dress shirt or dress pants combination is very suitable for office workers. People will look at assessment more than sympathetic.Therefore some fashion houses have a fashion brand. It is fashionable for office workers. In my opinion, jeans and T-shirts are available only to participate in extracurricular activities. Because it is dynamic, easy to operate .Con office staff should politely map must wear their work would be more appropriate. When going to help people communicate more confident beautiful and more luxurious. If we wear in the office workplace will be more suitable to wear jeans and T-shirts.
