

Task 1 Hi, Hanh. I'm so sorry because I can't go swimming with you tomorrow evening. You know, I really really like swimming but I'm busy tomorrow evening. I think you can invite Linh or Huong. They also like going swimming. I have an important meeting so I'm sorry one more time. Do you have free time this weekend? I think we can go swimming together. After that, we'll eat dinner together. See you soon, my best friend. Love, Mai Anh

Task 2 Friendship is very very important for everyone, especially me. Each of you is a gift that life has given you. When you sad, you have your friends. When you happy, you have your friends. Friends always stand by you. I think that friendship help you happier and stronger. We can share everything with your friend such as: happiness, secret, etc.
