Task 2 The most important festival in my country is Tet festival. The reason is: Tet Festival marks the beginning of the lunar new year. Lunar new year is different from "New year" of Western People. One is "lunar calendar", the other is "solar calendar". The lunar calendar has more or less than 13 months. Tet festival in Vietnam occurs in late January or early February. Vietnamese people think that the Lunar New Year is more important than the New Year. On Tet Festival, people seems to be very happy because they can have a long holiday to rest and to travel all around the country, even some families can go abroad! But when the New Year Eve come, everyone seems to completely ignore it! In my family, everybody is very excited when the Tet Festival is about to come. They prepare for Tet festival before months! Especially my mother, she buys a huge amount of groceries food! On Tet festival, we have some special dishes like: Chung Cake, Tet Cake, Dried candied fruits,.... There are some food that you can only eat that on Tet Festival. It means once a year. It's so special. It makes Tet Festival become more and more important to Vietnamese people! Although there are a lot of festivals in Vietnam nowsaday, Tet Festivall still is the most important festival in Vietnamese people's mind!
