

Task 1. Hi Leslie, I am so happy when you invited me go to your house for your party. I love party. I am sure I go there. That's good if I can bring my best friend to your party, thank you! I love dancing and singing, maybe I like some food and drink. Last year, you and me danced together and I still remember that you dance very well so I hope we can dance anymore. Send me time I can come. See you! Tien.

Task 2. Viet Nam has many festivals and the most important festival is always Lunar New Year. Its used to be called Tet holiday and followed Lunar calendar. At this time, all people in my country can rest about 10 days because we have to prepare something for it. The festival happens three days is the first, the second and the third follow Lunar calendar. Before Tet, people buy many things so street is very crowded. On each house, people in the North buy a kumquat tree, peach blossom and people in the South have apricot blossom. Food and drinks are more and special than normal. We have chicken, rice cake is called Chung cake, meat roll, bamboo soup with leg of pork,...Every body in family eat together and then old people give children lucky money and children wish their parents, their grandparents healthy, happy. When you go out on this days, traffics or people are deserted. People always go to pagoda, temple to pray for family, lucky and success. The festival means beginning new year so everybody are happy and wish have successful and happy year.
