

Task 1: Dear Ally, I am very happy when I received your email. I want to tell to you some informations of my birthday party that organized in weekend before. In my birthday party, there were some activities as dancing, singing and playing mini-games. There were twenty closed friends in my party. I received many presents from them as books, animal toys, pens, ... I was very excited after party. Sincerely, Signature.

Task 2: House only needs to be large is better than small. Large house is available for large family that includes many peoples. They will have separated rooms as bathroom, bedroom, living room, dining room, toilet. When a family live in large house, they can feel comfortable because large space and they can get happiness and promotion in their work. Large house is a symbol to show their value of properties. In large house, parents can following the growth of their children for a long time. But large house is difficult to keep cleaning. In fact that, large house is big problem for workers in Vietnam because they have low income. They have a list of expenditure beside house. So that, the owner of large or small house is belong to their income. Large house is always as their dream.
