

ntvanhmnk6c@daihocthudo.edu.vn A concert aka concert is a live performance (usually musical performance) in front of a crowd. The show can be performed by a single musician, known as soloist, or by a group of dance music ensembles, such as an orchestra, choir or a band. The concerts are held in many different ranges, can in their own homes, nightclubs, theaters dedicated, recreation centers, parks, multifunctional buildings, even the courts sports athletes. The concert held indoors at major competitions often called the concert arena. Any place where the organization sells, the musicians often performing on stage. Before recording the music, the concert will offer a unique opportunity for a formal hearing will be musicians playing instruments. Common name of a music concerts (concert) is the "show" (the show) and "gig" (concert).