

Task 1: Dear Anna, How are you? I write a letter because I want you help me to go to meet my father at the railway station at 2p.m tomorrow. You will go there at 1.30p.m. My father is very handsome. My father looks tall and rather thin. He has a black short hair. He has eyebrows and a litter mustache. My father will be wearing a black vest and shoes tomorrow. He will carry a brown suitcase. Please, call me at the number 0974410556 if necessary. Your friend, Ly

Task 2: which fashion style do you prefer: casual or formal? I think casual fashion is better. Most people tend to wear casual clothing as they attend daily activities. Event if your visiting church, weekly, that's still not as often as the other 6 days in that week. I do believe that casual wear is fun to wear, and goodness knows we all love casual wear in the summer when it can get hot enough to melt your socks off. In my opinion, casual fashion style is comfortable when going out with my friends and some other activities.
