

Task 1: Dear Leslie, I'm very excited to hear that you will hold a party on Saturday. I would like to tell you that I'm free on Saturday and I can go to your home to enjoy the party, And how about taking my new girlfriend, Bethany, with me to there? I guess maybe you will like her and we will have a eventful party. We will go there a little soon to help you arrange all things. Then, we have a dinner, drink and after that dance with the others. It will be so wonderful if I dance with Liam. Oh, so why do you invite Liam to come with us? Hope it will come soon! Love,Bich

Task 2 In my country, the most important festival is Hung King's Festival. It's held annual in Hung's temple at Phu Tho on 10th, March. To honor Hung King about his foundation of ancient Vietnam and his dedication to prevent the nation from others enemy. For that reason, the peoples around Vietnam will get 1 day off; therefore they can celebrate to honor that King. If you are far away from a main place where the Festival took place, you can hold a small party with traditional foods relevant to him. In other hand, You can go to this place and abide by all ritual at the festival such as: burn incense and prey to commemorate him,.. Maybe you can feel a bit stuffy because there are so many people around come to there and also the movement is quite difficult.
