

dear, Huyen Today, I had a good outing at the zoo. it is located in Dao Tan Street, I went along with my family There, I was watching the monkeys, elephants, tigers, and many other animals at the zoo. I had an interesting trip there and learn more about the animals on which they do not know. See you and I'll tell you more about that trip. Sign The park is a good place for everyone, everyone can make it to relax after a tiring day of work. the kids can play together more and there we have new friends. The park is a place where people can gather together to have fun discussing the changes in society, together to talk life. for myself, I also had a lot of memories attached at the park, it is also a place for yourself how much your friends, memories and the beautiful time in life. It is the ideal place to have fun any student, youth, the elderly, young children, friends, create a healthy environment and recreation open space has to entertain after hard times
