

Task 1: Hi Alex, I am very glad to hear from you. Of course, we can meet each other and hang out. I am living on An Duong street. Just contact me when you come. The weather in my local is very hot right now so I think you don't have to bring sweater or heavy jacket. But sometimes, there could be a sudden rain so you should bring a small umbrella along. Hope to see you soon, Manh Anh Tran

Task 2: I think "A successful film only needs famous actor" is a wrong opinion. Firstly, they are famous actor, but it doesn't mean they are able to play any kind of characters in a movie. Some actors are suitable to play heroes, but some actors are just suitable to play villains. It depends on the casting crew. Secondary, the content of the movie is an important part of a successful film. A film with an uninteresting and disconnecting content would make the watcher feel bored. Therefore the role of the directors and the screenplay writers are very important. If the casting crew find out some new but talented and potential actor, they could make them a famous star with a film with an interesting content. So I think it's a film make an actor famous, not a famous actor make a film success.