My friend, Thu Task 2: Hello, my name is Thu. I really like traveling around the world. I usually go with my family, my friend but sometimes i go alone. When i feel sad, i always want to go to the beach, stand in front of it, it make me feel so comfortable and i also realize that i'm really tiny. At this moment, i can forget anything and be myself, i can do whatever i want, go wherever. Traveling alone always make me feel better after difficulties in my life. That is the reason why i like traveling alone more than with someone.
