

Task1 Hey Nhi, thanks for inviting me to the Zoo this weekend. Im so excited to heard that. But i have a few question for you, the first thing is where is the zoo ? Is it near your or my house Second, can i invite my friend, you know more people more fun right ? And the last one is how can we get there ? By motobike or by train ? Please answer my question, i'll waiting for you Your Friend Phuong Task2 Them parks is a good place for teenagers to play. There are many reason to explain for my idea, but i think there are 3 most important things. First of all, playing in the park is so fun. You can invite your friend to have a picnic or have a meeting with them after a long time no see. Second thing, playing in the park is free. It mean that you can go everytime you want, you can enjoy and relax after a week of work hard Finally is the most important reason: Free play at the park also provides us with opportunities for "risk taking" (eg. how far can I reach, how high can I climb, can I do that with one hand or do I need two?). It also provides opportunities for us to make decisions and solve problems. This in turn can build self esteem and confidence in teenagers To sum up, in my opinion, theme parks are the best place for teenagers to play nowadays.
