

Task 1: Hi Sam! I've read your email. My favorite band is Big Bang. I like their songs so much so I listen to their CDs everyday. Do you know them?? I like them because of their songs, interesting voice and their styles. Would you like to try to listen?? Let's try. Your friend, Hoa

Task 2: Nowadays, shopping online is gradually becoming a top choice for smart customers. Firstly, the key factor contributing to shopping online is time saving. Instead of wasting time in looking around in stores, you merely need to stay at home, choose your items and the delivery service will help you do the rest. Secondly, online sellers offer us such a wide variety of products. Customers can stand a chance of purchasing all but everything online, from bits and pieces to big stuff such as cars or houses. One advantage of shopping online is being able to quickly seek out deals for items or service provided by many different vendors. In conclusion, shopping online is better than going into shops.
