

Task 1: Dear Spencer, I'm really happy to see you on this evening Saturday. I will prepare some chicken and some salad for our outdoor party. We can grill the chicken together in the park near my apartment. It will be fun. I hope you can get here soon because we have to prepare the food before the dinner. You can come at 5pm. And don't worry about the parking place. You can park your car in the first floor of my building. See you soon. your best friend Xuan

Task 2: Travelling is a new trend for people nowadays because of many advantages it brings about. However, some people want to travel in a group but some others just like having a trip alone because it has some benefits below. First, when you travel alone, you will have a freedom, you can do whatever you like or you can go wherever you want. It's no need to depend on the others. Secondly, it's cost you much less than when you go with a group. You can dismiss the unnecessary funds such as. Last but not least, traveling alone bring about some different feelings what makes the trip become special. Like when i went to Co To the beach, standing alone with the sound of the wind, the sound of the sea, the sound of some birds, and the sound of no one. At that time, you will feel absolutely peaceful and close to nature. To conclusion, traveling is a best way to improve your mooth and release your stress especially traveling alone.
