

task 2 when life is a big family has its own advantages and limitations. First advantages when you live with a large family is that you have a lot of time with his family. the collective game will always be played with family such as soccer, basketball, ... you will always be filled with the love of his family. The group will travel more, the photos taken with the family a lot. All members of the family will have a connection. Besides these advantages, it also has many limitations, such as the bill will always be very high. You will not have much time for myself. Houses always look pretty messy if you have young children. Food reserves will run out very fast because your family has too many people. Personal issues will have to solve the problem if parents have too much to worry. Personal needs will be limited by their budget you have to pay for so many other things. quiet space seems to be not in the house full of people. Maybe every large family has to face many disadvantages when living, but your house will always be filled with love task 1 hi Alex I am very happy to know you will come to my town next month. Here very wide pool clean and beautiful. If to the pool where you will be surprised. Outdoor pool and benches so you can lie in the sun. The sun is not too harsh, so you will not be afraid of burning. Water infinity pool and clean. Daily there will always be people cleaning up in here. The road to the town is quite easy to find if you take the bus or a taxi. You can read the name of the town and they will take you directly to the town after an hour. If you drive yourself you can go straight and turn right avenue to see that sea 20km from town. Appropriate time for you to town is probably this Saturday because that day festival will take place. That is all the information you want to know what I look forward to meet you soon! love, Chi
