

Not! according to myself, I do not like online shopping I love shopping at the store. Online shopping also has the benefits do not have to go back, but I was the dynamic I like to go to the shops it's a hobby of mine. The reason I do not like shopping online because they can not try to be toys not know how materials are not touching hands to see firsthand. Go shopping at the store, it will have many more options.