

Task 1: Hi, Spencer I have received your note. I will be free on Friday. We will meet each other for dinner at 7pm in the Plaza restaurant. So I will be there at 6.30. We can eat lobster there. It is a really famous dish to eat while drink Red wine. You can park your car there. Ok, see you then. Love, Nhi.

Task 2: Travelling is one of the most popular activities that people like to do in their spare time or holidays. Part of them wants to spend their trips with friends or family while others like to travel alone. Nowadays, travelling alone is becoming one of the best interest among the youth due to some of its masive benefits. Primarily, traveling alone allows people to have freedom in many aspects which include finance, time and location. For example, you can freely choose where and when to go without having an argue with others, which always costs a lot of time and efforts. I myself had been through a big fight with my classmates before we decided where to go on our last trip. Additionally, travelling alone costs less than traveling in groups, which lets you having enough and to spare for shopping on the ways. Besides, when travelling alone, you have chances to make new friends with whom you share the same interests. In conclusion, travelling alone brings a lot of advantages. However, when travelling alone you have to secure yourself since there is no else there to help you.
