

task 1: Hi Spencer! I am happy to meet you for dinner on Saturday. There is a good restaurant near my house. We can eat chicken soup, beef cooked in seven different ways, and drink orange juice. It's my suggestion, you can choose many other dishes, it's up to you. I will finish my work at 5p.m, maybe come at 6p.m. Don't worry about the park, the restaurant have a huge parking-lot. I look forward to that. task 2: I agree that: "travelling alone brings us a lot of benefits". Because when travelling alone, we can be free and do everything we want. So it makes us feel comfortable. Moreover, we can go wherever, not depend on any one else. I used to travel alone to Sapa, and I think it's an excellent experience
