

Task 1: Dear Mia, I'm going to have a party in my back yard. Would you like to come? It will be on Saturday and start at 5:00 pm. If you come, can you bring your guitar? I will be very happy to hear you singing and playing guitar. Call me. Yours, Trang

Task 2: I think that people working in offices shouldn't wear jeans and T-shirts because it very disrespectful. Suppose that you work at a very famous company, and you are going to meet a very important people to work with. Will you wear T-shirt and jeans? if i were in that circumstance, i'll never wear that because it will make me look comical and show that i don't respect the other people. T-shirt and jeans are very famous and comfortable, but in some circumstance, you shouldn't wear that. If people wear uniform or office clothes, the overview would be more beautiful. That's why i think people should wear uniform than T-shirt and jeans in offices.
