Task 2: Travelling not only makes us feel relax but aslo bings us a lot of benefits. First of all, travelling help us understand more after each trip. Because each place has its there cultures, there terrains ,... that we can explore. The second, we can make many friend when you travel. Its help you communicate better than you stay at home. Further more, travelling makes clever more, helps us can health training. We will independent on own life. When we have trouble, we can solve them although we are alone. And with every strange land , the scenery , new friends ... will make own life to be joyful . Go teach you how to find happiness in simple things .Once you are confident in own ability , we will easily agree to do the job is said to be in need of adventure without having hesitation. The only problem is that we like it or not , not daring or not. And above all, going will help us discover the hidden potential in us. You will find that you can do a lot of things seemed difficult - impossible. Therefore, if we have some conditions and time, we let ownself go arrange a tour.
