

Task1: I am very happy because you decided to visit my country next month. Welcome to my country! We will meet and I will take you to visit around here. Now, I will tell you about the weather in my country so that you can prepare everything better. This time in here is summer. Therefore, it is hot and sometime have rain. You should bring clothes that you feel comfortable as shirt, short, skirt... and remember to bring umbrella and raincoat for rainy day.

Huong Task2: Nowadays, films is a entertainment familiar to everyone. A successful film is a thing that everyone expect to entertain and relax in free time. A successful film based on a lot of factors, not just need famous actors. Therefore, I think " A successful film only needs famous actors" is wrong. There are some reasons why I think " A successful film only needs famous actors" is wrong. Firstly, a succesful film needs a attractive and interesting plot. For examples, if a film not have a dramatic and alluring in the plot, viewers will be bored and do not want to watch. So, this film will fail, Secondly, the film must creat mood and emotion especially to viewers. When the film leaves us with meaning and deep feelings, it was successful. Finally, the filmmakers must have enthusiasm and passion for the film. If they try hard for film, the film will success. A successful film based on many factors to success.
