I'll be there at around three o'clock. You are going to park at my house, then we will walk to restaurants. See you tonight Kind regards, Le Thi Mai task2. Travelling alone brings us a lot of benefits Traveling gives us the opportunity to disconnect from our regular life. You get to forget your problems or make you realize how important your family . we never know what we have until we lose it. Another great benefit is the relaxation you get to do. It's nice to live life to its fullest and enjoy a stress free time with yourself. When we come back we feel invigorated and we are happy to be back in our day to day routine. Traveling increases our knowledge and widens our perspective. To view new customs, different ways of living is fantastic for the mind. It gives us a new perspective about life and especially our life, it can help us change some of our habits or even create new ones. New experiences increase our resourcefulness by living situations you would never encounter at home, this is great experience for you when you come back to your routine. I have noticed that people who traveled a lot in life were ready to embrace change and have a natural ability of overcoming problems that others would frown upon. When traveling with friends or family it creates memories for a lifetime. These memories will create a bond that nothing can erase no matter what happens with the friendship/relationship. It can also give a new perspective on the relationship and cement the bond forever. It's never been this cheap to travel. With the internet and all the new technology, you can plan your trip exactly the way you want it. You can choose your budget, the duration of the trip and what you want to do.
