

Task 1: Dear Ngân, Thanks you for your letter that you sent me last week. Sorry it's take me so long to write. I hope you're well. You know, last week, I came to the city center Hanoi. And it happened when I was eating at a restaurant on Le Van Huu, I saw Brack Obama who is the President of the United States. He wore the casual but still having the elegance and intimacy. He was very tall, the same warm, friendly smile. He í going to eat with his friend. At the time I felt extremely lucky to meet the US President. I am extremely his fans because he is great man and have warm heart. This is the best experience I have ever had. And you? Which famous person did you see? I am looking forward to receiving your letter. With love, Trang

Task 2: Making phones calls is the best way for us to communicate with each other. We can make a phone call to our friends, families and colleagues much easier and quicker. In addition, it is more convenient when making phone calls, especially with people who usually have to more long distances. For example, my father works very far from home and he always comes home at weekend. Therefore, he uses a phone to keep in touch with my mother and me to make sure everything at home is all right. Sometimes, he call us to announce that he has to work overtime. In this occasion, making phone calls is the quickest and cheapest way of communication because my father do not have enought money to buy a laptop so sa to connect the Internet, and writing letter waste a lot of time to my family can receive. Including, the best way to communicating with each other is making phone calls.
