

Task 1: Hello, Alex Sure, you can come next month. I will see you in my house. But next month the weather will be bad. It will rain heavily. So, I think you should bring umbrella and wear a coat to keep warm. I will wait to see you, Alex ! Duong

Task 2 A successful film only needs famous actors I don't think this sentences is right. Beacause some films they don't have any famous actor or actess. But that flim still become very popular in the worlds, like "I see yellow flovers on green grass". It was one of the successful flim in 2015. The flim don't have any actor but with nice skills and meaningful content, the film has received acceptance of viewers and won prestigious awards. Without that, some flim they have many famous actor but everyone still says it's terrible. Beacause it's only have famous actor, they don't have anything without it. A successdul films is the film who have a great content, cool artifice.If they have all those, a normal actor still can make a great and successful film. So, that is my opinion:" A successful don't have to need famous actor".
