

Task 1: Dear Lisa, I'm very happy to meet you on Friday next week. We are going to walk at Thong Nhat 's park. I'm going to wear a pink dress. What do you want to wear? I think you should wear something pink like me. And you should bring your shoes because we will walk so far. That all. Love, Hang. Task 2: "Travelling is waste of time and money". I don't agree this idea. I can give the reasons. Firstly, travelling make you happy. You can rest and feel funny. It's the time to make celebrate with your family or your friend. Sometime, it's the time for you, just alone and free. Secondly, you will have many friends, an so on. You have so many thing good of traveling.
