Task 2: I don't agree with your opinion. I think, people working in offices should wear jeans and T-shirts. Because Wear jeans and T-shirts will be comfortabe, we will do a better job. You will easily go back, not encumbered by the office dress as before. Moreover, when you wear jeans and T-shirt, you will feel very compact, stylish and extremely dynamic.... Therefore, in my opinion, every one should wear jeays and T-shirts in offices. It will be very good for you.
