

Task 2 Lunar New Year is the most important festival in Vietnam, it's bold cultural and deep ethnic and unique. It is important because it is the family's New Year, New Year everyone home, the day of meeting family members gather together and eat dinner early to start the new year with a new and better beginning.