

Task 1 : Hi Huy Are you free this afternoon ? Can you go to pick my father up at the railway station, I have an unscheduled meeting this afternoon so I can not meet my father at the railway station. My father will wear a brown jacket, he has gray hair and he has hunched body type. In addition he also bring a cake, you will easily to recognize when you meet him. When you are free we go for coffee. Thank you so much my friend Ph??ng Anh

Task 2 : I prefer both casual and formal fashion style, i will choose fashion style for each situation. Now I am 20 years old, so i always use casual style such as sport and normal clothes for go to school or going out with my friends for cinema or coffeteria. Sometime on rainy days, a sport clothes are convenient for me than a suit or a picky dress. In addition, a casual clothes will made me feel comfortable than other formal clothes. Today, society is increasingly dynamic so the comfortable clothes that will help you to more easily for travel or transport control. But sometime, when i have an event like my birthday, prom, meeting...etc... i will choose a formal clothes, because i want to be a highlight in the event and i will get the respect of those around. On the other hand polite clothes will make you more chic and cool. In conclusion, you can choose whichever fashion styles that you like as long as you can feel most confident and comfortable.
