

task 1: Dear Spencer, I'm free on Saturday. We will eat in Pub restaurant near my house, ok ? You wait for me at the door of the restaurant at 7 p.m. Restaurant has parking for you. See you later !

Linh task 2: Each person has many solutions on different issues , but the travel is a choice many times more " stress diseases " such as today. But an interesting trip affordable, will overcome the situation of " stress " and your job will be more effective. Prepare plans to travel is also part of the fun, the benchmark cheer you, relax. When traveling will help your body relax and reduce the tension. Surely in your plan will include activities walking tour, stroll exploring new places, even you can spend the entire time to rest, the walk will also always more than at home. So in general will be more active than your usual. Travelling alone allows you to meet people from all over the world. Socialization is a very good condition so that you can learn from and complement their knowledge from a variety of different cultures. However, more than that, if you travel in groups to set a timetable and goals of all members to map out a common agenda, then travel alone to help you fully active on time. In short, the biggest benefit of traveling alone is the way to be able to feel life, relax that does not depend on anything or anyone.
