

Task 1: Dear Dad, I will tell you about my last birthday that you cannot attend as you wish. I went outside at around 9 pm. And returned after an hour and noticed that my parents and siblings have come to the house I stay with my friends and classmates. I knew that my family members came to celebrate my birthday. I was bit confused as I had no preparation for that and I felt bit lost about the whole event. When the clock ticked to 12.01 am, my friends started unfurling their surprises for me and that included a four storied cake, numerous gifts and music festival. I enjoyed this birthday occasion thoroughly and to my surprise my friends invited some of their cousins as well. I was mostly speechless and continuously thanked my friends for the great preparation they did for my birthday celebration. I spent the night with my friends, we watched a movie at late night and finally I went to sleep in the early morning. MY love, Van.
